

How Can You

Vybz Kartel

Don't you walk away from my love...
Don't you walk away from my love...
Don't you walk away from my love...
Summer love
Winter love
All year 'round, yeah

How can you say you are in love?
You don't even know who to trust
I'm waiting with my open arms
Don't you walk away from my love
How can you say you are in love?
You don't even know who to trust
I'm waiting with my open arms
Don't you walk away from my love
Don't you walk away from my love

Love and sex a two different things
Don't you treat them like one
Organize your feelings
Think it's forever, I need it just once
Ah, then I'm gone
Bye-bye, don't cry, I don't love anyone
Except you, baby
Maybe tomorrow I'll see you

How can you say you are in love?
You don't even know who to trust
I'm waiting with my open arms
Don't you walk away from my love
How can you say you are in love?
You don't even know who to trust
I'm waiting with my open arms
Don't you walk away from my love
Don't you walk away from my love

Two of we together as one
Say that's the life you want
All them girls you've been with
Put them together they don't make an answer, my love
But a me, you waan this
'Bout, "Ah, then I'm gone"
Everything cris...

How can you say you are in love?
You don't even know who to trust
I'm waiting with my open arms
Don't you walk away from my love
How can you say you are in love?
You don't even know who to trust
I'm waiting with my open arms
Don't you walk away from my love
Don't you walk away from my love

Don't you walk away from my love...
(Don't you walk away from my love...)
Don't you walk away from my love...

(Don't you walk away from my love...)
Don't you walk away from my love...
(Don't you walk away from my love...)
Summer love
Winter love
All year 'round, yeah

How can you say you are in love?
You don't even know who to trust
I'm waiting with my open arms
Don't you walk away from my love
How can you say you are in love?
You don't even know who to trust
I'm waiting with my open arms
Don't you walk away from my love
Don't you walk away from my love...
