

Sometimes Love Dies

Vybz Kartel

Why do I feel so scared to move on?
Even though I know love is gone
Why do I feel so scared to move on?
Even though I know love is gone

OK, it's settled
It is over, no more pretending
Gave me your word, love, understanding
Can't take the weight of us
We fought the battles
No shame in what we ended up with
No girl in life loved you like I did
We just couldn't make it work

Sometimes love dies, sometimes...
Sometimes love dies, sometimes

So bruised & battered
Our hearts will make a full recovery
We've grown apart but we keep going
So sad but it happened
I'm so unsettled
Sure as the moon orbits the planet
That's how I want your love surround me
We had it & messed it up

Sometimes love dies, sometimes...
Sometimes love dies, sometimes

Everyday, I love you less
Less than life, you too
I'm on the right, you're on the left
Fell out of love, you knew

Why do I feel so scared to move on?
Even though I know love is gone

Sometimes love dies, sometimes...
Sometimes love dies, sometimes

OK, it's settled
It is over, no more pretending
Gave me your word, love, understanding
Can't take the weight of us
We fought the battles
No shame in what we ended up with
No girl in life loved you like I did
We just couldn't make it work

Sometimes love dies, sometimes...
Sometimes love dies, sometimes
