On The Run

W.E.T.

How do you sleep at night
When you're as cold as ice
How do you see the world
Is it all in black and white
I can see her falling like a star
Burning in the sky
Run, run in from the light
Run, run in from the light
Run, run in from the light
You run, you run, yeah
Why do you feel this way

With all the pain inside
Where do you go from here
With all the secrets that you hide
I can see her falling like a star
Burning in the sky
Run, run in to the night
You run, run in from the light
You run, run in to the light
You run, you run
Hell, you run
Hell, you run
You run
