

Running From The Heartache

W.E.T.

Woah, yeah

Woah, wait a minute
Woke up in the middle of the night
I got nothing left to do
But get up and live

I wasn't thinking
I needed love and I needed it fast
Too many crumbles
Were confusing my mind

Some say it's alright
This isn't something that I normally do
Try to see it from my side
'Cause Im just trying to get over you

Comes down to this I hide
Oh, I'm running from the heartache to come
Don't wanna miss or cry
So, I'm running from the heartache to come
I'm running every night

Took a minute
For you to pack and be out of the door
I tell myself
I'm better off this way

I keep on lying
Not sure I can handle the truth
So, I pretend that's how
I wanted it to be

Some say it's alright
This isn't something that I normally do
Try to see it from my side
'Cause Im just trying to get over you

Comes down to this I hide
Yeah, I'm running from the heartache to come
Don't wanna miss or cry
So, I'm running from the heartache to come
I'm running every night

Some say it's alright
This isn't something that I normally do
Try to see it from my side
This isn't what I normally do
'Cause I'm just trying to get over you

Comes down to this I hide
Yeah, I'm running from the heartache to come
Don't wanna miss or cry
Oh, I'm running from the heartache to come
I'm running every night

(I hide)

Yeah, I'm running from the heartache to come
So, I'm running from the heartache to come

Woah, yeah
Just can't take it anymore
No more
So I'm running every night

Can't take anymore
Can't take anymore, oh
