

Changing Face

WAAX

Take me back to your backyard
I've never been in doubt that I must let go
No matter what, I say I lose
It shouldn't happen this way
Saw you standing by
Call it what you want
A web of lies in closing doors
And I'm never gonna let you in this time

Cause we're never gonna see it eye to eye
You keep pushing away and I turn my back
And I hope you're okay
But you won't, you won't, you won't see me around
You won't, you won't, you won't see me around

Its so hard to hang this up
Your changing face, a work of art
We talk sometimes, but we don't hear
It shouldn't happen this way
I'm drifting out
Tell it to a time
A time that I don't recognise
And I'm going on if its wrong or right

Cause we're never gonna see it eye to eye
You keep pushing away and I turn my back
You been pushing away so I turn my back
But I hope you're okay
But you won't, you won't, you won't see me around
You won't, you won't, you won't see me around
You won't, you won't, you won't see me around
You won't, you won't, you won't see me around
