

Ghost

Wage War

You only feel my ghost

I'm a stranger to my family
And a ghost to those I love
The further that I go it seems like the farther we become

I've been so lost in the moment
Bound by the hands of time

Let me go
Heal the cracks in my broken bones
My shadow is all you know
I'm here but it doesn't show
You only feel my ghost

This ends with what I love and what I hate
But you can't relate

Now I know I'm just a product of choices made
But I still need someone to blame

Let me go
Heal the cracks in my broken bones
My shadow is all you know
I'm here but it doesn't show
You only feel my ghost

I've been so lost in the moment
Bound by the hands of time

Let me go
My shadow is all you know

Let me go
Heal the cracks in my broken bones
My shadow is all you know
I'm here but it doesn't show

Let me go
Heal the cracks in my broken bones
My shadow is all you know
I'm here but it doesn't show
You only feel my ghost
You only feel my ghost
