

Surrounded

Wage War

We are not the same
I don't live for others' opinions
Just keep on changing and changing until you realize no ones knows your face

Why can't you live for your own convictions?
Instead of basing your life on everyone's decisions
We are not the same!

Every decision has a consequence
No exceptions will be made
Every decision has a consequence
No exceptions will be made

Spend your days and nights surrounded by all the shallow decisions that you make
That you make, that you make
Surrounded

Spend your days and nights surrounded
Spend your days and nights...
Surrounded

Following the crowd has never made much sense to me
Following the crowd has never made much sense to me
Oh, what a tangled web we weave
Spun until we're trapped always searching, searching for release
We are not the same!
We are not the same

Spend your days and nights surrounded by all the shallow decisions that you make
That you make, that you make
Spend your days and nights surrounded by all the shallow decisions that you make
That you make, that you make
Surrounded

Regain your integrity, never lose heart, find your own way
Regain your integrity, never lose heart, find your own way

The past never forgets, but the future forgives
The past never forgets, but the future forgives
The past never forgets, but the future forgives
