

What You Need

Wakey!Wakey!

I'm not always right
And not always wrong
Still I think I know
The worst of times
And I'm taking this home
Where we belong
Where we can find
Some peace of mind

And I can get you what you need, yeah... yeah...
I can get you what you need, yeah... yeah...

Plant the stone deep
Where it belongs
Desperate things
For desperate times
Lovers will come
Lovers will go
But you'll know when you
Look in her eyes

If they can get you what you need, yeah... yeah...
I'll get you what you need, yeah... yeah...

I'll get you what you need, yeah... yeah...
I'll get you what you need, yeah... yeah...
