

All Star Break Up

Wale

If my pride was aside, I probably would text you first
But, If you could die from a broken heart you would drive a hearse
Cause, every guy that has ever found you attractive and acted on it
Back pedals much after, that's when you've shown your worth
And I heard you love NBA niggas and
Now, you could track how much them niggas make and make rounds
At the All-Star break of day or so by Valentine's
So my advice if shorty doesn't know the game she gaming y'all
And this Valentine's, dollar signs have you satisfied
The Gold's Peak add a rollie and fashion nova ad
And that don't mean to talk to you like a ho cause nah
We both do what we want but if I want you
I must want you bad, right

Just saying, right
Your friends all getting married but yeah right
It's scary, right
That's real life
You might just catch you a spirit, you praying right

I don't believe in Valentine's
I don't believe in

Look
Pardon this pessimistic
Message I'm representing
Yes yes, I know this bitch
I mean woman, I was getting reckless
But hol up lemme get one second
I spent so much in Fendi
She know I'm cool with Robyn
She bother me for the Fenty yeah
I'm trying to block the part of my heart that thrives on your affection
You tried the love it's not enough, it's cars, it's money, attention
But, I'm way too flawed to judge you
And I do my part to push you
Father and father from me from my broads and all my problems
She say look 'le I'm sorry, my plane leaves in the morning
I'm trying to hit some parties, hit Staples for the performances
Maybe I'll see you Monday, thanks for this box of chocolates and Roses you hold before me but court seats could get me 40
Thousand likes on my IG, someone I like just invited me
Plus I'm not even wifey, plus you 5'9 he's a giant no
Baby mama, I might could just make a blog and get popular
Let's hold a 40 before us but fame and fortune excites me
My Valentine

I don't believe in Valentine's
I don't believe in Valentine's (I heard you love NBA niggas and now)
I don't believe in Valentine's (I heard you love NBA niggas and now)
I don't believe in Valentine's
You ever lost your main jawn to a point guard or a small forward
I don't believe in
I find it funny Cupid's busiest days, four days before the All-Star

It was fun while it lasted
I don't believe in
