

Half the corny niggas in the world can't dance!
You know what I'm sayin'?
So just it's like boom, we get rid of the dusty, dusty.
We get into some motherfuckin' soul.
Yo, I'm sayin' I don't got the best moves and shit
But we don't got nothin' to lose and shit
Ayy, yeah, yuh
Money on the wheels, woo, let's go
Mmm, yeah, soul clap now

Dance with me, yeah, it's so hard to fall in love
I know you need, yeah, a man that can play his part
I need your body to follow
I ain't gonna be the one that'll break your heart
God made a goddess, grab my arm and know that I got you, yeah
Dance with me, yeah, it's so hard to fall in love
I know you need, yeah, a man that can play his part
I need your body to follow
I ain't gonna be the one that'll break your heart
God made a goddess, grab my arm and know that I got you, yeah

You remember you my old love, girl
Back in school, my soror' love, girl
And I know it's been a minute though, girl
But I still think the world of you, girl
Used to be D1, party wild, the yard
Used to take eight classes, get your ski wee on Went and got yo masters, something you slaved over
Used to be high yellow, forever pink green though
I see you, girl

It's been a long time, don't let us pass it up twice
January one five, I believe you so Debbie Allen to me

Dance with me, yeah, it's so hard to fall in love
I know you need, yeah, a man that can play his part
I need your body to follow
I ain't gonna be the one that'll break your heart
God made a goddess, grab my arm and know that I got you, yeah
Dance with me, yeah, it's so hard to fall in love
I know you need, yeah, a man that can play his part
I need your body to follow
I ain't gonna be the one that'll break your heart
God made a goddess, grab my arm and know that I got you, yeah
