

Effortless

Wale

Effortlessly so stunning
Baby, can we create something?
Don't leave me wondering... 'cause

Effortless, girl, the way you grow
So effortless, baby, that's why I love you
You got me shook up, shook up, shook up, shook up off your lovin'
So effortless so effortless

Folarin, hol' up
Never trust a big butt and a smile
I been sippin' poison that's brown
I've been here, but I've been low key
Can't nobody say they've seen me around
I got circumstances that got my circumference workin' backwards
My circle's small as a barber shop in a Rasta mansion
Lockin' with you as I unravel the possibilities
When not with you I just miss your body, I got your energy
Gucci startin' to bore you ain't it
You rather patience and conversation
She mature, but she still a baby
'Cause she get a check but still check my pages

Effortless, girl, the way you grow
So effortless, baby, that's why I love you
You got me shook up, shook up, shook up, shook up off your lovin'
So effortless so effortless

Would you rather me put in work or be shy, baby?
Would you rather me say you're perfect and lie, baby?
Write my name up in cursive between your thighs baby
Would you rather me thirsty and you dehydrated?
I got the feelin' I'm catchin' feelings I can't fade 'em
Casual love is innocent but to care is fatal, uh
It's embarrassing carin' for some people
The heart you wear that's on your sleeve is there to mislead 'em, uh
I know I'm petty and immature and I know
I've been hurt before shouldn't be the source of my cold heart
Maybe shawty could be the first
To show me how to love on a level where effort doesn't work

Effortless, girl, the way you grow
So effortless, baby, that's why I love you
You got me shook up, shook up, shook up, shook up off your lovin'
So effortless so effortless

I wanted to that natural beauty
Are you even real?
Are you doin' this to me?
You're my favorite thrill
And there is no rush
But I think the universe is speaking to us

Effortless, girl, the way you grow
So effortless, baby, that's why I love you
You got me shook up, shook up, shook up, shook up off your lovin'
So effortless so effortless
