

Extra Special

Wale

You must be special
Extra special
The way you got me out in the open
You got me open, and I did not open

Tell me that you feelin' me, feel me, I could tell it
Hate to say I ended it 'cause you was overzealous
I be so defensive, I be blockin' questions
They be tryna gossip, y'all be blockin' blessings
I just be low, so don't follow me though
May or may not have a girl, so don't follow me home
If I do, if I don't, still I'll be sleepin' alone
Still have you weak in the knees 'cause I was weak in the moment
It could be first night and forever to go
It could be whole life but together we boring
Look at me, whole time I'm ahead of myself
Some women only want the vibes if it come with the wealth, listen
Everybody wanna be respected, cool
And everybody want a lil' effort, cool
And everybody wanna be remembered
But really everybody ain't special, so

You must be special (You pressure)
Extra special (I said you pressure)
The way you got me out in the open (Yeah)
You got me open, and I did not open (This a whole different person, this a whole nother [?], listen)

Your friends say I'm bold, my friends say you iffy
Our past is our past, don't gotta be our history
I'm tryna get our chemistry, now I'm tryna feel you
You bad and I'm wealthy, they question our intentions
Whatever, we can tell 'em whatever
We can tell 'em we not together to see who been jealous, yeah
It's whatever, Netflix and Prosecco
Why you leavin' your lashes, always takin' my sweaters?
Mastermind with the bait, that home was rather expensive
It's okay, it's okay, you camouflagin' your feelings
Oh, the irony, love be amazin' but be tirin', vibe with me
Good conversation make the sex feelin' lightning, inspiring
I'm in the every side of you, uh
Your body's only rival is the mind of you, so
No matter all the times I forgot to love
I ain't findin' love 'til somebody you, true

You must be special (So come through, 'cause you)
Extra special
The way you got me out in the open
You got me open, and I did not open
You must be special
Extra special
The way you got me out in the open
You got me open, and I did not open
You must be special
