

Do you like the lonely work? Or do you—?
Yeah, but we don't know how we gon' use it

I been away sometimes, shit change, don't mean I can change your mind, yeah
You been away sometimes, shit change, oh, you gettin' complacent, ah, yeah
And everyone say you fine, when you home, you don't wanna be alone, no, no
'Cause you feel a way inside, but inside ain't ever this cold

I heard it get lonely, lonely
Lonely outside (I heard it get)
I heard it get lonely, lonely
Lonely outside, I, I

It's gonna be aight, it's gotta be aight
You can thank your homegirls, you took all they advice
Maybe this is life, or maybe this is spite
I don't even know anymore, I'm not that type
I'm not about to type, right now, I'm on this flight
Red-eye to my show, let me guess, you high, light room
Can tell I held you up, now you back to where you vibe
Gettin' down on the floor, gotta run before you fly

I been away sometimes, shit change, don't mean I can change your mind, yeah
You been away sometimes, shit change, oh, you gettin' complacent, ah, yeah
And everyone say you fine, when you home, you don't wanna be alone, no, no
'Cause you feel a way inside, but inside ain't ever this cold

I heard it get lonely, lonely
Lonely outside (I heard it get)
I heard it get lonely, lonely
Lonely outside, I, I (Uh, yeah)

The four corners of the block you belong to
I'm glad you finally doin' everything that you want to
I know you love standin' on tables in clubs
I'm worried 'bout your well-being 'cause I know what you're drawn to Got tired of getting drunk at the dive bar
You sold your fam the old Chevy 'cause it wasn't a Nascar
You're goin' way too fast, not good on gas
'Cause you settle down for anyone who hand you a black card, yeah

I been away sometimes, shit change, don't mean I can change your mind, yeah
You been away sometimes, shit change, oh, you gettin' complacent, ah, yeah
And everyone say you fine, when you home, you don't wanna be alone, no, no
'Cause you feel a way inside, but inside ain't ever this cold

I heard it get lonely, lonely
Lonely outside (I heard it get)
I heard it get lonely (I heard it get), lonely (I heard it get)
Lonely outside, I, I

I heard it get lonely, lonely
Lonely outside, I heard it get
(Lonely, lonely, lonely outside)
