

I Do It All for You

Walk Off the Earth

I do it all for you-hoo, you-hoo
I do it all for you-hoo, you-hoo
Buy a house in Malibu-hoo, hoo-hoo
There's nothing left to do because I do it all for you

I'm cool if we stay in in this town for life
But if you wanna hit the road, leave it all behind
I'll take out a loan and buy an old school bus
I'll rip out the seats and make it just for us
You told me that you want to go to the moon
I made a call to Elon, he said, how's your June?
But if you'd rather stay down on Earth
We can watch the stars and let Lance be first
And I'll say it a 1000 times, girl

I do it all for you-hoo, you-hoo
I do it all for you-hoo, you-hoo
Buy a house in Malibu-hoo, hoo-hoo
There's nothing left to do because I do it all for you
You-hoo, you-hoo
I do it all for you-hoo, you-hoo
Buy a house in Malibu-hoo, hoo-hoo
There's nothing left to do because I do it all for you

I know you always wanted to learn guitar
Travel the world and be a big rockstar
I'll come to your show when no one else is there
Till you sell every row at the Madison Square
You love sushi so we'll go to Tokyo for lunch
And if you like it then we'll quit our jobs and stay the month
But if you think we'll miss our friends too much
We'll hop on a plane and be home by brunch
And I'll say it a 1000 times, boy

I do it all for you-hoo, you-hoo
I do it all for you-hoo, you-hoo
Buy a house in Malibu-hoo, hoo-hoo
There's nothing left to do because I do it all for you
You-hoo, you-hoo
I do it all for you-hoo you-hoo
Buy a house in Malibu-hoo, hoo-hoo
There's nothing left to do because I do it all for you

I was on the roll, didn't need anyone around
I used to write it off 'cause I love you's a scary sound
Then you came along, took my heart, proved me wrong
Lit my whole world and flipped it upside down, shit

You told me you wanted to be my man when I met ya
You told me you wanted to meet my mom so I let ya
You told me when I'm down you'll come around and make it better
So there's nothing left to do, because I do it all

I do it all for you-hoo, you-hoo
I do it all for you-hoo, you-hoo
I'm gonna get you brand new pair of shoes
And when there's nothing left to do

I do it all again for you-hoo, you-hoo
I do it all for you-hoo, you-hoo
Buy a house in Malibu-hoo, hoo-hoo
There's nothing left to do because I do it all for you
