

Thought I could see you 'round town
And not really hate it
But I guess I must've underestimated
My feelings
Them curves got my heartbreak squealing

Yeah, I'd be thinking 'bout some happier things
If you'da showed up in some baggier jeans
Breaking up wouldn't matter to me
Be a little less sadder to see

If you could just be a nine for a minute
One less than a dime for a minute
I could see you in a church dress and it would hurt less
And I could focus on them bible verses
All of that fine for a minute
Wouldn't mind being blind for a minute
Baby, why you gotta ten out of ten it?
I could stop writing song lines with you in it
If you could just be a nine for a minute

The way you backing it up, looking over your shoulder
Girl, you're getting too good at playing hard to get over
If you're tryna make me miss that Girl, you did that
Congrats

Yeah, I'd be thinking 'bout some happier things
If you'da showed up in some baggier jeans
Breaking up wouldn't matter to me
Be a little less sadder to see

If you could just be a nine for a minute
One less than a dime for a minute
I could see you in a church dress and it would hurt less
And I could focus on them bible verses
All of that fine for a minute
Wouldn't mind being blind for a minute
Baby, why you gotta ten out of ten it?
I could stop writing song lines with you in it
If you could just be a nine for a minute

Hey
It's like, one, two, I could stop thinkin' 'bout you
I said, three, four, I could watch you leave and not say, "Good Lord"
Five, six, I could stop staring at your lips
Seven, eight, moving on wouldn't have to wait

If you could just be a nine for a minute
One less than a dime for a minute
I could see you in a church dress and it would hurt less
And I could focus on them bible verses
All of that fine for a minute
Wouldn't mind being blind for a minute
Baby, why you gotta ten out of ten it?
I could stop writing song lines with you in it
If you could just be a nine for a minute

If you could just be a nine
Hey, one less than a dime for a minute
If you could, if you could just be a nine
Hey, one less than a dime for a minute
