

Accidentally Called Her You

Walker Hayes

I accidentally called her you
Ain't no surprise, she called it quits
Just like the ones before her, too
Your name came in-between our lips
I try to think before I speak
But all I think about is you
Tell the truth, do you ever call him me?
'Cause I accidentally called her you

I said, you ain't here, but, baby, you ain't gone
Left me lone, but you just won't leave me alone
I don't get it, babe
Saw your taillights fade
But you're still driving me crazy
It's hard to forget what was
I lose every new girl I pick up 'cause
The truth comes out like a hiccup does

I accidentally called her you
Ain't no surprise, she called it quits
Just like the ones before her, too
Your name came in-between our lips
I try to think before I speak
But all I think about is you
Tell the truth, do you ever call him me?
'Cause I accidentally called her you

Said love is a pain when you needed to lie
It's got a big mouth and so do I
Just when I think I've got you replaced
I forget to forget your face
'Cause if you don't miss me, I'ma have to Find somebody with the same name as you
'Cause then, she ain't gonna know the difference when

I accidentally call her you
Ain't no surprise, she called it quits
Just like the ones before her, too
Your name came in-between our lips
I try to think before I speak
But all I think about is you
Tell the truth, do you ever call him me?
'Cause I accidentally called her you
