

Holly Would

Walker McGuire

Well, Holly blew in like Dorothy
And took this little town by storm
Well she made it seem like we weren't in Kansas anymore
Now my mama, she called me crazy
When I told Becky goodbye
She said, son she's such a good girl
I said, mama that's the reason why!

Cuz Holly would raise hell
Becky would run and tell
Holy would drink and cuss
Becky, ha! Not so much
Holly was a long hair
Don't care, make ya stare
California dream
Oh, and Becky wouldn't look good on the silver screen
Yeah, but Holly would

Well, I introduced her to those back roads
Where I met the backseat of her car
Yeah, who knew that dead end dirt road
Could ever take me that far
Oh, now Becky started spreading rumors
Hell and most of them were true
Yeah, I guess you could say she was wastin' her breath
Cuz everybody already knew

Cuz Holly would raise hell
Becky would run and tell
Holy would drink and cuss
Becky, ha! Not so much
Holly was a long hair
Don't care, make ya stare
California dream
Oh, and Becky wouldn't look good on the silver screen
Yeah, but Holly would

Well, she rolled into town rocked my world
Now I wish they all could be California girls

Cuz Holly would raise hell
Becky would run and tell
Holy would drink and cuss
Becky, ha! Not so much
Holly was a long hair
Don't care, make ya stare
California dream
Oh, and Becky wouldn't look good on the silver screen
Yeah, but Holly would
Yeah, you know Holly would
