

Try Again

Walking On Cars

See the waves approaching the city
There'd be no hiding from this
September memories they hate me
You're all the things that I miss

The smell in the air, we're still in the street
But having you there, then letting you leave
Yeah I know that I should never have called
But I had to say

Two years in the rearview mirror
You're long gone but I'm still right here
You're ten thousand miles away but I can't forget
So I hope you don't mind me letting you know
A piece of my heart is still on hold
I'm a little bit scarred, a little bit broke
But I'll be in
If you ever wanna try again
If you ever wanna try again

You're there in my head in the darkness
Out of sight, out of my mind
I got strangers playing your part but
I just can't leave you behind

Two years in the rearview mirror
You're long gone but I'm still right here
You're ten thousand miles away but I can't forget
So I hope you don't mind me letting you know
A piece of my heart is still on hold
I'm a little bit scarred, a little bit broke
But I'll be in
If you ever wanna try again

If you, if you
If you ever wanna try again
If you, you, you
If you ever wanna try again
If you, if you
If you ever wanna try again
If you, you, you
If you ever wanna try again

I know I shouldn't be here but my heart can't stop screaming out your name
Screaming out your name
I know I shouldn't be here but my heart won't stop screaming out your name
Screaming out your name
Ah

Two years in the rearview mirror
You're long gone but I'm still right here
You're ten thousand miles away but I can't forget
So I hope you don't mind me letting you know
A piece of my heart is still on hold
I'm a little bit scarred, a little bit broke
But I'll be in
If you ever wanna try again

If you, if you
If you ever wanna try again
If you, you, you
If you ever wanna try again
If you, if you (If you ever wanna try again)
If you ever wanna try again
If you, if you, you, you

I know I shouldn't be here but my heart can't stop screaming out your name
Screaming out your name
