

Manipulate

Wallace

Well the first step
Is to talk till they give in
Don't give it up until you get it
Break down their walls till you living
Inside their mind for free

That's when you know that you're winning
Wrapped around your finger you're spinning
The story so you look good in it
Is that so bad of me?

I'm a liar
I'm a counterfeit
Yeah I'm good at it

Burning your desire
I never meant it
Yeah I'm full of shit

I keep stalling
I keep stalling
I keep stalling
With no apologies

Why you falling
Why you falling
Why you falling
Falling hard over me

What makes you so complacent?
My heart is known to be vacant
And I'm uncomfortably impatient
I lack stability

Get you to do what I want whenever
You put me under so much pressure
What makes you think we were forever?
Why so much hostility?

I'm a liar
I'm a counterfeit
Yeah I'm good at it

Burning your desire
I never meant it
Yeah I'm full of shit

I keep stalling
I keep stalling
I keep stalling
With no apologies

Why you falling
Why you falling
Why you falling
Falling hard over me

Tables have turned
And I'm feeling quite twisted
For once in my life
Well the power has shifted

Do you feel worthless?
Do you feel pain?
I manipulated you
Like it was a game

I'm a liar
I'm a counterfeit
Yeah I'm good at it

Burning your desire
I never meant it
Yeah I'm full of shit

I keep stalling
I keep stalling
I keep stalling
With no apologies

Why you falling
Why you falling
Why you falling
Falling hard over me

Tables have turned
And I'm feeling quite twisted
For once in my life
Well the power has shifted

Do you feel worthless?
Do you feel pain?
I manipulated you
Like it was a game
