

Punching Bag

Wallice

I still got your number saved in my phone
And I only ever think of it when I'm alone
I can't seem to read between your lines
Do you wanna see me or just pass the time?
I've still got your place saved in my maps
I'll keep it for a rainy day when I relapse
Emotionally available in my dreams
I'm bored and down for anything, I'm

In my right mind less than half of the time
I can be a punching bag
Listen to your white lies and pretend it's alright
Oh, don't be such a drag

Left my Hydro Flask in the back of your car
I'd like to have it back but you live so far
Can I come and grab it later today?
Can I stick around? I drove all this way
Did you mean it when you said you're leaving?
'Cause I can't believe it
Was it in my head?

In my right mind less than half of the time
I can be a punching bag
Listen to your white lies and pretend it's alright
Oh, don't be such a drag
