

Bad Dream

Wallows

Every night when you talk in your sleep
I try to stop you from grinding your teeth
Are you running away from something?
Are you worried you're feeling nothing?

Here we go again
Tell me what's been left unsaid
I'm not in your head
Can you help me understand?

Are you having a bad dream, baby?
Tossing, turning in our sheets lately
Are you having a bad dream, baby?
I want to wake you, but you won't let me

Does it linger when days are still young?
Daydreaming and biting your tongue

On the other hand
Maybe I misunderstand
Here I go again
Am I projecting all your plans?

Are you having a bad dream, baby?
Tossing, turning in our sheets lately
Are you having a bad dream, baby?
I want to wake you, but you won't let me

These nights are cold, but you're not alone
I lie awake and feel you shake
I hold you close, but you never know
Is it just your dream or reality?

Are you having a bad dream, baby?
A reflection of your thoughts lately
Are you having a bad dream, baby?
I want to wake you, but you won't let me

(Here we go again)
Are you having a bad dream, baby?
Are you having a bad dream, baby?
(Here we go again)
Are you having a bad dream, baby?
I want to wake you, but you won't let me
(Here we go again)

(Here we go again)
