

I Wouldn't Mind

Wallows

Woo

I'll do it better, I'll make it alright
I'm hesitant to tell you something doesn't feel right
I'm nearing a collapse, but I swear that I'm intact, I do
I do
Hey

Can't you feel it? It's written on the mirror
Will you decide? I can't make it clearer
I don't want to go home tonight
Alone

You know I wouldn't mind, right?
You know I wouldn't mind, right?
You know it's on my mind, right?
You know I wouldn't mind, right?

I'll do it better, I'll make it alright
I know I can be deceiving, but I'm trying this time
I've fallen off the track, and it's harder to look back at you
At you
Hey

You know I wouldn't mind, right?
You know I wouldn't mind, right?
You know it's on my mind, right?
You know I wouldn't mind, right?
