

Valentine

Wallpaper.

I ain't trying to waste my time
Girl I need to make you mine
I want you to be my valentine
My valentine (Be my valentine)

Foxy lady, you looking so 21 for your age you caught me staring at the grocery store
You got to save me everybody else is a nobody that's trying to be somebody fine as you

Say the words we want to come out of your mouth
You know I want you

I ain't trying to waste my time
Girl I need to make you mine
I want you to be my valentine
My valentine (Be my valentine)

Fucking stoned, standing in line, right behind, your behind, I just can't think of nothing else
I want that produce fruit in your cart, mix it with alcohol and we can make some delicious beverages

Say the words we want to come out of your mouth
You know I want you

I ain't trying to waste my time
Girl I need to make you mine
I want you to be my valentine
My valentine (Be my valentine)

You see baby, I'm just trying to get some grocery shopping
I'm just trying to get a little fresh produce
Turn them sprinklers on, girl (heh)

I ain't trying to waste my time
Girl I need to make you mine
I want you to be my valentine
My valentine (Be my valentine)

I ain't trying to waste my time
Girl I need to make you mine
I want you to be my valentine
My valentine (Be my valentine)
