

Bad Attitude

Walter Egan

Like an accident walking 'round
Looking for a place to start
You made a beeline for me
You drove away with my heart
Now you know you've got to change
You're gonna go insane

From your bad attitude
Bad attitude, attitude, yeah
You'll never be happy
Bad attitude, bad attitude, attitude

Now the past is just a memory
The future was ours to hold
But since you wouldn't believe
Our dreams did not unfold

Now alone you sit and cry
And you wonder why

It's your bad attitude
Bad attitude, attitude, yeah
You'll never be happy
Bad attitude, bad attitude, attitude

My love, the script is not worthwhile now
No, there's too much paranoia here
So be wise, the trust is worth a try

Bad attitude
Bad attitude, attitude, yeah
You'll never be happy
Bad attitude, bad attitude, attitude
