

I Don't Wanta Go

Wanda Jackson

Well, I don't wanta go down the Lonely Street
Where broken hearts and the teardrops meet
Always been right here though I know I was wrong
So think it over baby, don't leave me alone

No, I don't wanta go down that Lonely Street
Where the blues walk in and the teardrops meet
Yes, think it over baby, don't break my heart
Give me one more chance, we'll make a new start

No, I don't wanta go down the Lonely Street
Where the blues walk in and the teardrops meet
You're my only love, it's here I wanta stay
So think it over baby, don't send me away

'Cause I don't wanta go, no I don't wanta go
Oh, I don't wanta go...
