

What's So Bad About Feeling Good?

Wang Chung

You're awake as dawn breaks, another day
And the grey clouds weep how you feel
But the way she touch you just bring you back to life
Don't let them bury your soul in concrete and steel

So what's so bad about feeling good?
What's so bad, what's so bad?
What's so bad about feeling good?
What's so bad, what's so bad?
Why hold back when you know you should
Break the chains of your life and start
Feeling good

As we're walking home there's a whispering
From the city lights to the stars
And the way she move her body next to me
In her hair I breathe the air of Venus and Mars

What's so bad about feeling good?
What's so bad, what's so bad?
Why hold back when you know you should
Break the chains of your life and start feeling good
What's so bad about feeling good?
Break the chains of your life and start feeling good

Dream on, dream on
If you're happy feeling sad
Dream on, dream on
'Bout the things you could have had
Then tell me what -
Tell me what's so good about feeling bad?
