

Crushed Beneath the Tracks

Warbringer

Time advances, an unceasing force
The tracks keep on rolling, never remorse

You are left behind, no room for the weak
When steel is so strong, flesh is obsolete
Ever grinding forward, never look back
All stand aside, crushed beneath the tracks

In with the new, the new, the improved
Stand in its path, it will roll over you

You are replaced, no room for the weak
When steel is so strong, flesh is obsolete
Ever grinding forward, never look back
All stand aside, crushed beneath the tracks

The future is now, machines will build a better age
Survive somehow, but still ahead like even darker days

Ever grinding forward, never look back
All stand aside, crushed beneath the tracks

Crush

Ever grinding forward not one step back
Adapt or die, crushed beneath the tracks

Rolling on and on, destruction in its path
The old ways are dead, crushed beneath the tracks

Crush
