

The Jackhammer

Warbringer

You cross these streets with fear on your mind
Walk fast at night and always look behind
I'm waiting in the alley, among the trash
One wrong step and you'll feel my knife at your back

Underneath the freeway, kicked into the street
Curb stomped into the asphalt
A stain on concrete

The jackhammer

Thrown into the dumpster where your body will expire
Your final resting place underneath the razorwire

Don't beg, waste my time, you're fuckin' through
The first one that walked by, lucky you
Would you like to say any last words
Before I bring down the jackhammer

Underneath the freeway, kicked into the street
Curb stomped into the asphalt
A stain on concrete
You crossed the wrong side of that broken chain-link
So that's how you end
A stain on concrete

The jackhammer
Oh, the jackhammer

Nothing left to say
Swing the hammer away

Underneath the broken freeway
Ashes of the ruined city
The law protects no one today
The hammer is your fate

Underneath the broken freeway
Ashes of the ruined city
The law protects no one today
The hammer is your fate
