

All Over Again

Ward Thomas

There were years I was down
Quarter-life crisis at my door
On the floor, on the town
Crying till I couldn't anymore
Till I couldn't anymore

Jaded days, faded nights
Memories I'd rather not recall
All the anxious, broken time
Wouldn't wanna relive it at all
Wouldn't wanna relive it at all (But I would if I had to)

For all that I went through, it led me home to you
You made beginnings out of all of my ends
For every broken path, I wouldn't take it back
I'll never think about what else could have been
It gave me you, so I would do it all over again
It gave me you, so I would do it all over again

Parallel, you and I
Running like rivers to the sea
Where we fell, how we rise
Looking back now, it's how it had to be
It's how it had to be

For all that I went through, it led me home to you
You made beginnings out of all of my ends
For every broken path, I wouldn't take it back
I'll never think about what else could have been
It gave me you, so I would do it all over again
It gave me you, so I would do it all over again

For you, I do, I'd do it again
For you, I do, I'd do it again
For you, I do, I'd do it again
Again

For all that I went through, it led me home to you
You made beginnings out of all of my ends
For every broken path, I wouldn't take it back
I'll never think about what else could have been
It gave me you, so I would do it all over again
It gave me you, so I would do it all over again

It gave me you, so I would do it all over again
It gave me you, so I would do it all over again
