

Changing

Ward Thomas

I may believe you, and yeah, I hear you
But can we take a minute or two?
Say something stupid without a purpose
'Cause lately all we seem to do

'Cause we're acting like we know it all
Talking like we've seen it all before
Don't wanna hear it anymore

This world just keeps on changing
Let it all do what it's gotta do
Feels like it's always raining
And a little bit of laughter's overdue
And I know we'd still complain if it all just stayed the same
Everything is changing

Don't call me stupid
Don't think I don't care
Stressing 'bout it won't do a thing
Put down that paper
Deal with it later
Understand it is what it is

'Cause we're acting like we know it all
Talking like we've seen it all before
Don't wanna hear it anymore

This world just keeps on changing
Let it all do what it's gotta do
Feels like it's always raining
And a little bit of laughter's overdue
And I know we'd still complain if it all just stayed the same
Everything is changing, oh

Just remember what it felt like
We were just little kids
We were throwing sticks and stones like trouble didn't exist
Now all we do is worry about the littlest things
No, don't hide away
Don't hide away

This world just keeps on changing
Let it all do what it's gotta do
Feels like it's always raining
And a little bit of laughter's overdue
And I know we'd still complain if it all just stayed the same
Everything is changing, oh

Ooh, ooh
Ooh, ooh
It's changing
Ooh, ooh
Ooh, ooh
It's changing
Ooh, ooh, ooh
