

Someday

Ward Thomas

I was just about to call it off
Had it all written out, I couldn't send it
It wasn't true

Cross an ocean talking on the screen
Terrified of being seen
Fear had me flying
Hiding a bruise

I wanna walk down this road
Can we just take it slow?

Don't say you love me yet
Darling, I'm still too scared
'cause I've been broken but
I'm open and I'm hoping you can wait
So don't go and cross the line
Darling, take your time
I'm not ready for a steady love
But I will be someday

You listen close and you make me laugh
I'm holding on, holding back
Can't rush the river
Just let it move

I wanna walk down this road
Can we just take it slow?

Don't say you love me yet
Darling, I'm still too scared
'cause I've been broken but
I'm open and I'm hoping you can wait
So don't go and cross the line
Darling, take your time
I'm not ready for a steady love
But I will be someday

Someday I swear that I won't be afraid
Promise forever but just for today

Don't say you love me yet
Darling, I'm still too scared
I've been broken but
I'm open and I'm hoping you can wait
Don't go and cross that line
Darling, just take your time
I'm not ready for a steady love
But I will be someday
Someday, someday, someday
