

After Forever

Wardrum

It's so true you don't know what you got
Until it is gone
It's true looking back on the laughs
Makes you cry
When time's speeding towards forever
My needs travel backwards
To ill-timed farewells and hurtful goodbyes

Those I loved have gone far away
And no road can lead the way

Maybe one day we'll learn to live for today
Before this life just slips away
Somewhere in time, somehow I know deep inside
We'll meet again free from the pain
After forever

It's so true you don't know what's missing
Until its arrival
It's true looking back on the cries
Makes you laugh
I find some farewells can be hardly grasped
The grief sinks in my bones
Can't let go of things that once meant so much

Those I loved have gone far away
And no road can lead the way

Maybe one day we'll learn to live for today
Before this life just slips away
Somewhere in time, somehow I know deep inside
We'll meet again free from the pain
After forever

Free from the pain
After forever, after forever
