

Revolution

Warfare

In this a suburban sewer,
When the stench affects your brain.
The high rise and the media
The underground is a drain
A drain from the truth,
Like rodents scraping so uncouth
A vision of a young man
Just losing his youth
No move on a chess board.
Aimed to change their ways,
So just read it in the press
Man's evolution to depress,
Man's evolution
With no solution
To this revolution
Rejoice the revolution.
