We're so pretty
We're, we're so pretty
Oh, I know you love me
But, but, but please don't touch me
Sun's so bright I'm burning in my bed
You know some nights I feel alive but I'm 70% dead

We're so pretty
We're, we're so pretty
Pretty tired, uninspired
Of living in a world on fire
It's getting heavy
Oh, the air is getting heavy
Yeah, it's getting heavy
The air is getting heavy
Oh!

We're killing innocence
With stylish ignorance
You can barely hold it together but
Don't I look better now you know that we won't live forever

(Oh!) We're killing innocence
(Oh!) With stylish ignorance
You can barely hold it together, baby
Don't you look better now I know that we won't live forever

We're so pretty
We're just so fucking pretty
Oh, I know you love me
But, but don't fucking test me

Take my body
Turn it into something ugly
Take my money
Turn it into something dirty

Sell my right to autonomy
Take my blood
Take, take everything out!
It makes you enough to get high but Never gonna catch me buying time
'Cause I'm too caught up tryna keep myself alive

We're killing innocence
With stylish ignorance
You can barely hold it together but
Don't I look better now you know that we won't live forever

(Oh!) We're killing innocence
(Oh!) With stylish ignorance
You can barely hold it together, baby
Don't you look better now I know that we won't live forever

Fuck me
What went wrong?
I'm sick of sleeping on the barrel of a loaded gun

Fuck me
What went wrong?
Fuck me
What went wrong?
Fuck me
What went wrong?
