WARGASM

Wrap my heart in gold
And tattoo it with red ink
I know it won't be worth that much
But at least that stone will sink
And when you throw me in the river
Tie me to a golden cross
I know we don't believe in much
But we all understand loss

I'll gladly give you the keys to this kingdom of mine
Built from gravel and wine, lost in time
We'll all turn to dust, marrow and rust
Because at the end it's in nothing we trust
I'll give you the keys to this kingdom of mine
Built from gravel and wine, lost in time
We'll all turn to dust, old pyrite lust
Because at the end it's in nothing we trust

If I washed my feet and pierced my skin
Could I let the blood that's thick with sin
Before the sun comes out and burns it in?
Oh if you tied me up, I'd still find a way out my mind
I'd enjoy it, oh

I'll gladly give you the keys to this kingdom of mine
Built from gravel and wine, lost in time
We'll all turn to dust, marrow and rust
Because at the end it's in nothing we trust
I'll give you the keys to this kingdom of mine
Built from gravel and wine, lost in time
We'll all turn to dust, old pyrite lust
Because at the end it's in nothing we trust
