

Modern Love

WARGASM

We hurt ourselves in funny ways
So subtle and strange
I've fallen and hurt myself
Again and again
If I asked you would you kiss my bruise
And play pretend
Would that get you, get you in the mood
Would you want me til the end
We all fall in love until we're not
But I could care for you
Yeah, I could bury you

Take me, oh, take me
To all the places they hate me
Where we were seething and bleeding out on the floor
Cuz I could care for you
Bury you
Baby, run, find the end with you
Oh, this
This modern love is war

We hurt ourselves in funny ways
So subtle and strange
We hurt ourselves in funny ways
Because we love the pain
Because we love the pain
Because we
If I asked you would you lick my wounds
And make believe we're friends
Now I could care for you
Oh, I could bury you

Take me, oh, take me
To all the places they hate me
Where we were seething and bleeding out on the floor
Cuz I could care for you
Bury you
Baby, run, find the end with you
Oh, this
This modern love is war

We're all in love until we're not
We're all in love until we're not
Go

Take me, oh, take me
To all the places they hate me
Where we were seething and bleeding out on the floor
Cuz I could care for you
Bury you
Baby, run, find the end with you
Oh, this
This modern love is
(Bleed out all over the floor)

(We all beg for more)
Oh, this modern love is
