

Ride The Thunder

WARGASM

Let's start this explicit
Tell me to stop and I'll pay you a visit
Debaucherous days
Thoughts so impure, they'll set you ablaze
My body is chrome
My blood gasoline
Bitch, get with the theme
It's rock and role-play
I'm riding the lightning
Witness me

I'm coming up
I'm coming in
I'm swimming in sin
I'm sinking in
I'm running out
I'm wearing thin
Shall we begin?
The clock's ticking
Cut out my tongue
I'm speaking too fast
A flash in the dark
And a stab through the heart

I love us moaning
We're sleeping with solvents at 3 in the morning
The witching is ours
I'll be absolved in a coven of soldiers
Leave on the mask
Leave on the boots
Frame all the stains in the room
Hang my pictures from a noose
You are the weapon I choose

I'm cutting out
I'm cutting in
You taste so good when your blood gets so thin
I'm coming up
I'm coming in
I'm swimming in sin, I'm sinking in
Cut out my tongue
I'm speaking too fast
A flash in the dark
And a stab through the heart

Can you see these walls crawling?
I feel fucking haunted
Their voices enthralling
Be my apparition
And I'll be your grudge
I'm a man on a mission
A little obsessed
A little possessed
A little depressed
Summon me up with the kick drum
Only 32 seconds to get this shit done
I wanna go faster

Ride
Stay out of the light
War
This is a warning
Now
We're coming up right
Now
I wanna go faster
Now
We're coming up right
Now
I wanna go faster
We're coming up right

Somebody, stop me, I'm coming up hard
Stab through the heart
