

Scratchcard Feeling

WARGASM

Me and you baby
They told us luck would only take us so far
They say you can't force change
But on a night like tonight
It's evolve or die

Everybody's looking at me please, please, please
Is there something caught between my teeth, teeth, teeth
Try something new it tastes like shit
If I taste too much then I might slip (Just lean into it)
Oh no I lost my grip but
But nothing ever gets to stay the same
Always different poisons and different names
Wash your hair out in the London rain
Wash away, wash away

Cheap thrills, cheap thrills, cheap meals
Little deals, little pills
Makes you ill, makes me sick, makes me feel
Don't wanna feel, don't wanna feel

I've got that scratch card feeling
Dancing with my demons
Call us legion (Legion, legion, legion)
Oh, I bet you feel so lucky
Spit fuel into the fire
Our downfall's your desire
I've got this feeling I'm feeling so cool
I'll be watching when you fall

I've got a appetite for destruction
Self-inflicted deconstruction
Yeah it's masochistic, but we sort of function
So what, we act like we're famous?
How could you blame us?
We're just entertainers
All the best stories are made up
Nothing ever gets to stay the same
Always different poisons and different names
Now you're drowning in the London rain
Wash away, wash away

Spit blood into the fire
Our downfall's your desire
I've got this feeling I'm feeling so cool
I'll be watching when you fall

Did you think we couldn't do this without you?
Did you think you'd be alright on your own?
You've changed
But have you grown?
These everyday battles have built my home
So many demons, so many bones
Do you feel lucky?
Do you feel lucky?

Cheap thrills, cheap thrills, cheap meals

Little deals, little pills
Makes you ill, makes me sick, makes me feel
Don't wanna feel, don't wanna feel

I've got that scratch card feeling
Dancing with my demons
Call us legion (Legion, legion, legion, legion)
Spit blood into the fire
Our downfall's your desire
I've got this feeling I'm feeling so cool
I'll be watching when you fall

Do you feel lucky?
Do you feel lucky?
