

Machinery

Warhaus

I offered before what I'm offering again
I don't claim to know why I should change a thing
I don't claim to be sober, I don't claim to be right
I don't claim to be anything except yours to consume tonight

Wowowohoho now the machinery won't let you go
Congratulations
Wohoho and now the machinery won't let you go
Congratulations

Divide yourself up into value and junk
Divide yourself up into the sober and the drunk
Divide yourself up into the old and the youth
Divide yourself up into beauty and truth

Wowowohoho and now the machinery won't let you go
Congratulations
Wohoho and now the machinery won't let you go
Congratulations

Ohh, ohh, ohh
Baby baby
I said
Baby baby

Woho hohoho and now the machinery won't let you go
Congratulations
Wohoho and now the machinery won't let you go
Congratulations
