

No Such High

Warhaus

You were pretty on the internet
How I hoped we would meet
Until one day well we just did
And you were beautiful on the street

And now temptation's looking right at us
Every time that we kiss
But what I whisper in the crook of your neck
Temptation will never guess

There's no such high
That is high enough
That you and I
Can't rise above
No such high
That is high enough
That you and I
No

I thought I had reached the end
When I arrived at the top
Only now I understand what you meant
When you said that I couldn't stop

It's cause there's no such high
That is high enough
That you and I
No such high that is high enough
That you and I
No
No

Ohh, how I need it honey
Ahh, how I need it
Your love, how I need it honey
Ahh, how I need it
I tremble for your love
How I need it honey
Ahh, how I need it
I tremble for your love
How I need it honey
Ahh, how I need it

There's no such high that is high enough
That you and I can't rise above
