Uh, yeah, yeah
Uh, uh, aye
Yeah
Uh, yeah

I blew the racks on the exotic, I'm only inhaling the premium
I know them niggas holding animosity but it'll be cool when I see the m
You ever walked in the room and felt all the energy change, like you the topic of discussion?
If you mention that big thrity-two, bet it come with effects, we cannot fuck with assumptions Business on business I don't do opinions
When that money come blue it ain't no better feeling In the Porsche on the E-way decapitating ceilings Booked out the studio I'm working every day so I know the feds listen ing
And I got accustomed to seeing them junkies with nothing but pipes an d syringes

Yeah, and I cannot compare to these lil' niggas, they gon' try to tri ck me out the spot Rock the Cartier glasses, Cartier bracelets and I Cartier'd the watch
When I cook in the kitchen I'm deep in the pot
And I got plenty love for the opps
We don't show mercy to enemy niggas
And I pray for the day when they free all the opps
But my lil' niggas wanna' spin, spin, spin Put a hundred pounds in the trunk, bench press some, we ain't at the gym
At the top of the top, I'm the creme de la creme
And I know niggas hate it, they can't even do nothing about it Since I was a youngin' I been a little rowdy, rebel Exotic and Grabba I gave her a edible Fucking the nurse so I get all the medicals Codeine and Percocets, Xannies et cetera
And I fuck with the shrooms it clear up my vision
I see every angle, it help my decision Yeah, and I pray for my niggas taking penitentiary chances
When you come from the trenches you gotta' go make a plan, it don't c ome with a pamphlet

I blew the racks on the exotic, I'm only inhaling the premium
I know them niggas holding animosity but it'll be cool when I see the
