

Armageddon

Warkings

(Armageddon)

(Armageddon)

Hopeless as the hammer falls
We are fearless coming with the dawn
They are hopeless as they see the sails
We are fearless come whatever may

And the horns will sound forever

Armageddon crimson dawn arise
Armageddon darkness has arrived
As the heavens cry forever, and their world is up in flames
Armageddon this is Armageddon

The end is here, the temples torn
The sky is turning black
As prayers drown beneath the crimson flood
The books and bones, all cast to flames
The saints all die the same
With fire and with steel, their world is slain

And the horns will sound forever

Armageddon crimson dawn arise
Armageddon darkness has arrived
As the heavens cry forever, and their world is up in flames
Armageddon this is Armageddon

Armageddon crimson dawn arise
Armageddon darkness has arrived
As the heavens cry forever, and their world is up in flames
Armageddon this is Armageddon
