

Fire Falling Down

Warkings

From the eternal darkness, no relief
Forged into mighty chains - his destiny
Waiting for redemption, he will rise up from his cage
Burn down his enemies

He is waiting
Burning hatred
To destroy his love

Fire - falling
You see the world is burning
Fire falling down
Darkness - rising
The underworld is burning
Fire falling down

Deep into the nightmares, a dying soul
Chained for eternity - madness reigns
Locked into the darkness, he will never see the light
The sun and the sky again

He is waiting
Burning hatred
To destroy his love

Fire - falling
You see the world is burning
Fire falling down
Darkness - rising
The underworld is burning
Fire falling down

The fire is falling
Falling down

Fire - falling
You see the world is burning
Fire falling down
Darkness - rising
The underworld is burning
Fire falling down

The fire is falling
Falling down
