

Hellfire

Warkings

When you call my name - I become fire
I burn your blood into my endless desire
When you call my name - I become fire
I write my own book of sinful revival

I can see your darkness
Like a shadow of your heart
Falling tears for evermore

Born from light rising ashes of my mind
Deep into the flames of my hellfire (hellfire)
Born from light like a shadow of our times
Deep into the flames of my hellfire (hellfire)

When you cry my pain - I will fly higher
I turn your tears into my hellbound power
When you cry my pain - I will fly higher
I sing my anthem of faithless survival

I can see your darkness
Like a shadow of your heart
Falling tears for evermore

Born from light rising ashes of my mind
Deep into the flames of my hellfire (hellfire)
Born from light like a shadow of our times
Deep into the flames of my hellfire (hellfire), hellfire

I can feel the hellfire
And the flames in your veins
I can feel your desire
And the lust in your eyes

Born from light rising ashes of my mind
Deep into the flames of my hellfire (hellfire)
Born from light like a shadow of our times
Deep into the flames of my hellfire (hellfire), hellfire
