

Kings of Ragnarök

Warkings

(Whoa, oh-oh
Oh-oh, oh-oh)
Kings of Ragnarök

Blood for blood
An eye for an eye
Our time has come
Battles calling

Tit for tat
This is the end of gods
This world is in flames
Battles calling

Hold your tears for victory
And darkness will fade like your fear

Rise against and choose your fight
Can you feel the fire's blazing?
Warriors of the storm
We bring thunder, we unite
Be a hero, fight forever
Warriors of the storm
Kings of Ragnarök

Side by side, here we come ashore
Together we stand
Battles calling
North to South, it's a tale untold
Doomsday has come
Battles calling

Hold your tears (hold you tears) for victory (victory)
And darkness will fade like your fear

Rise against and choose your fight
Can you feel the fire's blazing?
Warriors of the storm
We bring thunder, we unite
Be a hero, fight forever
Warriors of the storm
Kings of Ragnarök

In the heart of battle, we settle the score
Can you hear the wings of the shadow ravens soar?

Rise against and choose your fight
Can you feel the fire's blazing?
Warriors of the storm
We bring thunder, we unite
Be a hero, fight forever
Warriors of the storm

(Whoa-oh-oh, oh, oh, oh-oh)
Be a hero, fight forever
Warriors of the storm
Kings of Ragnarök
