Maximus

Warkings

For one moment of glory
From the dark to the light
Rising up from the ashes
Like a demon at night
For one moment of honor
With the power of steel
Screaming hate into darkness
And Carthago will fear

Morituri te salutant

Maximus
We will die for glory
Maximus
We will fight with you
Maximus
We will tell the story
Maximus
Shadows and dust

For the people, the masses
Blood and games for the crowd
No ones cares for the living
Only death will prevail
For the gods and the heavens
We will die on the sand
Like brothers forever
We will stay till the end

Morituri te salutant

Maximus
We will die for glory
Maximus
We will fight with you
Maximus
We will tell the story
Maximus
Shadows and dust
