

Never Surrender

Warkings

Valhalla awaits, the gates open wide
War calls my name, war calls my pride

Die - I will not surrender
Die - The Allfather will know my name

Never surrender, no one will remember
Your name will be lost in the past
Never surrender, no one will remember
Your heart and soul, written in blood

The dragonships sail to unknown shores, again
Sound the alarm, the northmen are here

Die - I will not surrender
Die - The Allfather will know my name

Never surrender, no one will remember
Your name will be lost in the past
Never surrender, no one will remember
Your heart and soul, written in blood

Never surrender, no one will remember
Your name will be lost in the past
Never surrender, no one will remember
Your heart and soul, written in blood
