

The Last Battle

Warkings

Our kingdom, our duty
From freedom to the death
No mercy, no prisoners
This is where they die

Our kingdom, our duty
From freedom to the death
No mercy, no prisoners
This is where they die

This is my final war, where I feel alive
Brothers side by side, give no mercy
This is the final call, there is no return
Blood is on my hands, death and glory

War!
War!
War!

Here we fight alone
Rising from the darkness
Where we were born
Fight to live
We will give our blood
For the honor of our gods
For the gods

This is the final stand, no one will return
We will make them pay, let them die here
This is the final day, we will give our blood
Retreat is nothing we have ever heard of War!

War!
War!

Here we fight alone
Rising from the darkness
Where we were born
Fight to live
We will give our blood
For the honor of our gods
For the gods

Our kingdom - war!
Our duty - war!
For freedom - war!
To the death

Here we fight alone
Rising from the darkness
Where we were born
Fight to live
We will give our blood
For the honor of our gods
For the gods
