

I've always said you open me like a flower
Open me, open me
You've always seemed to naturally have that power
Naturally, naturally
As time goes by we meet again
As time goes by it works again
And here I am on your altar
And here I am, we do not falter

Away, away, away, away, away, away, away, away
Away, away, away, away, away, away, away, away
Away, away, away, away, away, away, away, away
Take me away, you know
You know there's no words to say
No words to say
Away, away, away

Away, away, away, away, away, away, away, away
Away, away, away, away, away, away, away, away
Away, away, away, away, away, away, away, away
Take me away, you know
You know there's no words to say

Mmm, on your altar (No words to say)
Mmm, we do not falter (Away, away, away)
Mmm, on your altar
Mmm, we do not falter
Mmm, on your altar
Mmm, we do not falter
