

I'll break your heart
to keep you far from where all dangers start
and atmosphere
gets crazy light
where every breath just bites into the soft
space of calm about you

they call me a thief
common thief
common

I know that you're not here subtle's lost without you i hope that you find all there is that you want is inside you now

all danger starts
I'm on my way
I'm on my way down

I wonder where you are!?

in the lost
we are waiting for you
with your dying need for their attention hold on tight now
we won't let you fall
